DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1, 3-8,16-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1 there is claimed “.... whereby said validating institution may decrypt”. The recitation of “may” is indefinite since, if there is no decryption, the recitation is non-functional.

The term “institution” is recited in claim 1, 3-6 and 8 which is considered vague and indefinite. The meets and bounds are not determined. What is or is not an institution may vary over time also.

The terms PIN in claims 3, 5, 7, 16-17 and PKN in claims 18-19 are not defined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over of Nissl et al in view Pinizzotto.

Nissl et al discloses a method of limiting the amount of time information is valid in support of an electronic transmission. A date/time stamp representing the current time is encrypted and transmitted along with encrypted digital data. A validating entity decrypts the encrypted stamp to determine the age of the digital data as represented by the time of the decrypted stamp is within a predetermined time limit for validation of transmission (col 7, lines 60-67; col 8, lines 1-20).

Nissl et al does not disclose a credit card transaction, or where the digital data is credit card data including PIN or PKN.

Pinizzotto discloses credit card transaction encryption, where the digital data is credit card data including PIN or PKN (para 0014, 0020-0023).

It would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art to include disclosure of credit card transaction encryption, where the digital data is credit card data including PIN or PKN to the method of Nissl et al because Pinizzatto teaches the importance of security for credit card transaction information (para 0001) and Nissil et al teaches the importance of financial transaction security (col 1, lines 44-47).
